Appendix

Five Years of Momentum

2019

- Founded as a grassroots campaign during the 2019 federal election
- Published SUTE's first Non-Partisan Platform Comparison Chart

2020

- Federally incorporated as a national non-profit organization
- Engaged over 60 Wilfred Laurier students in 3 different projects to advance climate justice advocacy work
- Engaged over 30 youth in environmental leadership webinars and education programming, including a keynote presentation by Dr. Ingrid Waldron

2021

- Engaged over 8700 readers with non-partisan resources shared to SUTE's website during the 2021 snap federal election
- Facilitated our first community consultations on behalf of Wild Matriarch
- Founded Righting History, an anti-colonial education platform

2022

- Published our Voices of the Greenbelt mini-documentary and podcast series
- Launched our Rest, Recovery, Resistance (3Rs) wellness framework
- Secured an organizational income of over $90,000

2023

- Self-published Practicing Rest, Recovery, Resistance: An Interactive Dreaming Journal, and sold it in 7 independent bookstores across Canada
- Facilitated the delivery of 100 letters to the federal Minister of Labour and Employment, Workforce Development, and Disability Inclusion, in support of a national Youth Climate Corps program
- Launched Shake Up Your Community (SUYC), a youth leadership incubator program

2024

- Entrusted with funding by Environment and Climate Change Canada to consult 158 youth on the Right to a Healthy Environment
- Invited to speak at the first National Environmental Justice Symposium
- Hosted a Rest, Recovery, Resistance program for 17 youth participants at Hollyhock Retreat Centre
- Launched our weekly Infiltrate the System newsletter on Linkedin (with over 14,100 impressions in 2024)

2025

- Launched Canada's first youth climate policy network, Infiltrate the System Network (ITS), with 17 member organizations
- Supported organization of the Draw the Line events in Vancouver and Toronto which drew out 11,000+ people and designed a campaign to mail 1000+ postcards to the Prime Minister
- Hosted a Literary Contest recognizing 11 winners, facilitated 3 public webinars, supported 3 Scholar Fellowships and published a hand illustrated collection distributed digitally as well as 100+ free copies across independent bookstores in Toronto through our Righting History Program. Provided paid positions for 3 racialized women for program coordination and honoraria for 12 Indigenous and racialized youth as participants of the program.